Education is the instruction of the intellect in the laws of Nature under which name I include not merely things and their forces, but men and their ways; and the fashioning of the affections and of the will into an earnest and loving desire to move in harmony with these laws.

ADMINISTRATION

Frederick Riel
Superintendent of Schools

You now possess an inquiring mind. This type of mind should never be satisfied with things as they are. It is always seeking ways to make things better and do things better. It assumes that everything and anything can be improved.

In your inquiring minds, now at work through your years of education in the Billerica School System, lies the promise of the future. The door has been slightly opened; the new world of the atom, solar energy and space unlimited can be glimpsed ahead. I am not qualified to say what adventures lie in store for you, for the inquiring minds of tomorrow. But remember, the only horizon of the future will be the limit of Man's imagination.

Frederick C. Riel

Dear Mr. Riel,

Although you have been with us for only two years, you have been responsible for the marked increase in our educational and moral standards. We are grateful to you for these accomplishments and hope that they will remain with and grow in Billerica Memorial High in the years to come.

Class of 1960

Marjorie F. Currie

It has been very pleasant and enjoyable working with such cooperative, thoughtful and friendly young women and young men. When you are awarded your diploma in June you will set forth in different directions to achieve another goal. While you strive in a fair and honest manner to attain your goal, I will always be wishing you success.

Royal S. Adams

Royal S. Adams
Principal

Dear Mr. Adams,

We, the graduating class, know how hard you have strived to provide us with a superior school, having high standards in both scholarship and discipline. We appreciate the association we have had with you and desire to become a credit to both you and to Billerica Memorial High.

Class of 1960

Helen F. Collins
Guidance Director

J. David Nuttall
Vice-Principal

Few times in our lives are we aware of a person who, by her innate kindness and loving manner, influences the direction of our paths. Such a person was MARGARET M. ADAMS. We were fortunate to know her during our high school years and we have greatly missed her in our last year at Billerica Memorial High School. Those of us who knew her are aware of the positive effect she exercised by her kindness. An angel with us; an angel when we were separated. And to this angel we dedicate our "Warrior," hoping to express our gratitude for the spirit of goodness which dwells with us still.

ADVISORS

As you graduate from Billerica Memorial High School, you will go out into a world that needs the honest and efficient service of men and women who are unselfish, unprejudiced, courageous, and good. Whatever your ambitions, aims, or hopes, the faithful and efficient performance of duty in your daily vocations is a true form of service and the key, not only to success, but also to happiness in life. I can think of no better way to express my thought for you than to quote Wordsworth:

"Not to be whiled away in aimless dreams,
But to improve ourselves and serve mankind,
Life and its choicest faculties are given."

Ora K. McLaughlin

Dear Mrs. McLaughlin and Miss Royal,

For four years you have always been ready to give helpful and intelligent advice as counselors, teachers and friends. You have been understanding and patient with us, disciplined us wisely and have joined in our student activities.

We wish to extend to you our sincere thanks and wish you long lives and much happiness.

Class of 1960

Farewell—fare thee well. Be a person who is interested in doing good for others, not merely in doing well for yourself.

Good-bye—God be with you. May He guide you in achieving worthwhile goals, which can be best attained if He is kept uppermost in your thoughts, words, and deeds.

The simple words—farewell and good-bye—express my sincerest wishes for your future.

ACTIVITIES

WARRIOR

On a sunny October afternoon a meeting was held for all seniors interested in a yearbook. We had no advisor as yet but proceeded on our own, electing Peter Clarke and Brenda Sampson as Co-Editors-in-Chief. Soon after the election, Mr. Davey entered the auditorium and accepted, to our delight, the advisorship. We set to work selecting a staff and publisher. Meeting our first deadline was a struggle because of picture difficulties, but all was taken in stride, concluding our work and sending the book on its way to the publisher in Buffalo, New York. A sigh of mixed emotions was breathed as we culminated our final task in high school, waiting only for class night and distribution of the sole tangible record of our high school years.

The girls have not only enjoyed working together on various projects such as selling school pennants and bookcovers, and originating and working on the Memorial Fund for Mrs. Adams, but have also held many successful social activities.

The three D's expressed in the name "Tri Delta" stand for Duty, Deference, and Decorum. The general function of the organization is to help senior girls to develop in themselves these three qualities and set an example for younger girls.

Row 1: M. McCue, Vice-President; D. Gage, President. Row 2: S. Neiss, Treasurer; C. Bonenfant, Secretary.

PEP SQUAD

Cheering for our athletes and hoping for victory, are the many girls of our school. Under the supervision of Mr. Davey and led by Mary Landry and Joan Columbus, these school-spirited female fans attended the football and basketball games, supporting our cheerleaders and backing our teams.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

With Kathleen Mahoney at the helm and with the assistance of advisor, Miss Hood, the Girls' Athletic Association conducts the girls' intramural sports. Intramural basketball, badminton, volleyball, and bowling are among their activities.

Selling programs at football games and holding a dance during the Christmas holidays were the sources of revenue with which they purchased new basketball uniforms. Also trophies for various contests, jackets presented to members of the basketball team and cheering squad who have retained membership for their Junior and Senior years, and the G.A.A. trophy were procured with this money. The officers for 1959-1960 were: Kathleen Mahoney, President; Janet Callahan, Vice-President; Susan Scagel, Secretary-Treasurer; Sandra Milton, Mary Gill, Intramural Chairmen; Rosalie Martell, Gail McGurn, Assistant Intramural Chairmen; Jean Doherty, Freshman Representative; Brenda Sampson, Joanne Parkhurst, Judy Oskowski, Helen Turnbull, Patricia Petipas, Alice Miner, Margaret O'Brien, Mary McIsaac, Rita Mahoney, Activity Managers.

The Dramatic Club, directed by advisor, Mrs. Drescher, has been one of the most active groups in our school. Among its activities were the productions of a minstrel show and a Christmas pageant. Endeavoring to promote creative development and imaginative thinking with top grade entertainment as a result is the foremost aim of the Dramatic Club. With the money the Dramatic Club has earned this year they will give, as usual, the greater part in scholarships to deserving seniors. The officers are: Patricia Lavery, President; William Duca, Vice-President; Bernadette Dubois, Recording Secretary; Patricia Petipas, Corresponding Secretary; and Linda Barton, Treasurer.

Its members have debated with Keith Academy, Dracut High School, and Chelmsford High School, bringing honor to our high school with their fine debating talents. The general function of the organization is the development of the skill of forensics and the development of self-confidence in public speaking.

KEY CLUB

Led by Mr. O'Brien and officers Frank Bernarducci, President; Francis Leonard, Vice President; Gregory Clyde, Secretary; and Robert Desrosiers, Treasurer; the Key Club has had a very successful year. Obtaining books for the library, aiding the Kiwanis of Billerica with their action, selling birchwood candle holders, and distributing FIRE poster cards throughout the school are just some of the activities the Key Club has performed during the year. The function of this organization is to aid in promoting the general welfare of the community and school.

ART CLUB

The attractive decorations that adorned the lobby during the Christmas holidays and the festive occasions have been the work of the Art Club, under the guidance of the Art Teacher, Mrs. McHugh and officers Nancy King, President; and Dorothy Allard, Treasurer. A very beautiful wall mural was one of the main projects of the club this year. The general function of the club is to create more interest and understanding of art in high school students.

SCIENCE CLUB

The newly organized Science Club, named the Sigma Phi Rho, directed by Mr. Clancy, Club Advisor, aims to promote interest and skill in physics, chemistry, biology and General Science. BAND

The high school band supervised by Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson and student directors from Lowell State Teachers' College, have provided enjoyable music at football games and other events. Their main project for the year was participation in the Northeastern Music Festival. The function of the band is to help students grow musically and to develop a clearer understanding and a more thorough appreciation of music. The student conductor is Charles Hartshorn and the librarian is Frederick Wain.

TWIRLERETTES

Led by Joan Nardini and assisted by Roberta Ward, the Billerica Twirlerettes have brought fame and honor to Billerica Memorial High School by winning many trophies and medals at various competitions. The girls meet every Saturday morning for practice sessions.

At parades and football games the Twirlerettes can be seen marching in front of the high school band in their snappy uniforms of green and white corduroy.

CHORUS

Participation in the Northeastern Music Festival, the Christmas program at the school, and entertaining at the 1900 Club were just a few of the activities of the chorus. Under the auspices of Mrs. Johnson and student librarian, Merry McCarthy, the general function of the chorus is to develop a better appreciation of music through first-hand experiences.

CHEERLEADERS

The Cheerleaders, captained by Sandra Milton and under the advisorship of Miss Hood, have done much to promote school spirit and enthusiasm at football and basketball games. Neither rain nor sleet nor snow kept these brave squaws from attending the games. They sponsored a fall dance, using the funds to help pay for their uniforms, took charge of the football rallies, and provided entertainment at many school dances during the year.

OFFICE WORKERS

Delivering messages on foot and on the public address system are these capable students. Mrs. Currie's clerical force aids her in maintaining a smooth-running office.

Assisting Miss Collins in her office are Margaret McCue, Linda Currie, and Cynthia Barnes. Sorting catalogues, typing, and general filing are several of their activities.

Always busy are these indispensable girls, arranging books, keeping records, and classifying. With such assistance Miss LaMontagne finds it much easier to retain her orderly library.

FOOTBALL

The 1959 football aggregation proved to be a very pleasant surprise. Not expected to do much in pre-season predictions the team produced a season of thrills, posted an impressive over-all record, won the Lowell Suburban League title, and white-washed traditional rival, Chelmsford, by the score of 19-0.

Credit for the team's determination and spirit during this successful season goes to coaches Lampson, Luciano, Miles, Reardon, and Co-captains, Sylvester and Huber, who were ever aggressive and yelling encouragement to their teammates.

TRACK

In the spring of 1959 something new was added to Billerica's athletic program, namely, the first organized track team in the school's history. Coach Roger Samson, with Captain Bob Murray and Co-captain Norm Demers leading the way, piloted the runners to a 6-1 winning season, defeating Ipswich, Westford, Wilmington, and Milford, N. H., while losing only to Bedford. To top off the season the team won the Informal Lowell Suburban League by defeating six other schools.

In September, 1959, varsity Cross-Country was introduced and the harriers, led by Captain Brantford Aylward, compiled a 1-6 record, out-running only Bedford while losing to Milford, N. H., Wilmington, Chelmsford, Weston, and Bedford.

For the coming season Coach Sampson is looking forward to a much better record since all the boys will be running again this year.

Although all of last year's first team was lost through graduation, Coach Gracie put together a capable and scrappy unit led by Co-captains Phil Scott and Jim Baybutt for the 1959-60 season. This group started off in fine winning fashion, but midway through the schedule the wins began to be mixed with losses with the final result being an 8-8 record for the year.

BASEBALL

This year's varsity team is looking forward to a good season. With many veterans returning, led by Co-captains, Billy Duca and Phil Scott, the job of shaping up the club should be considerably easy for Coach Lampson. Added to this is the fact that there are a number of promising and enthusiastic freshmen and sophomores turning out this year. It seems that Billerica Memorial High will be the team to beat.

FIELD HOCKEY

"Scoop!"

We are happy to note that this year's field hockey team had a good season in comparison to other years. Although the club didn't produce many victories, the defeats came by very close margins. Also, the team was quite inexperienced, but Coach Hood and Co-captains Joanne Parkhurst, Judy Oskowski and Helen Turnbull did much through their sportsmanship and enthusiasm to improve this young club.

We are proud to say that this year's basketball team has done exceptionally well. With Miss Hood again coaching the club, the girls sported a 10-2 record in the Lowell Suburban League. With Miss Hood, Manager Brenda Sampson, Co-captains Kathy Mahoney and Janet Callahan providing the inspiration; with Joanne Parkhurst and Priscilla Paradise shining on defense; and with Kathy Mahoney and Janet Callahan doing the heavy scoring, the club operated smoothly and added another fine year of basketball to Billerica's record books.

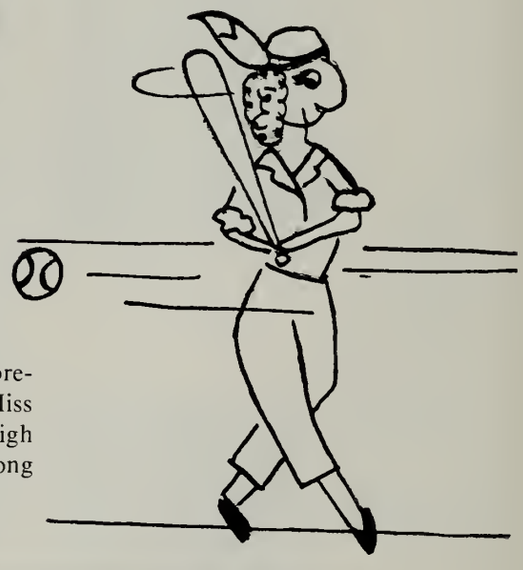
JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

"Practice Makes Perfect." Even though they didn't win many games this year, the Junior Varsity team possessed a great sense of team spirit. The capable Captains who led the team to their victories were Rita Mahoney and Mary McIsaac.



SOFTBALL

At this writing, being buried in two feet of snow, it is somewhat difficult to predict what kind of season the 1960 softball team will have. However, this year Miss Hood, although lamenting the loss of many of last year's players, hopes that a high number of newcomers will bolster the returning veterans and give the girls a strong team.

Class Prophecy

It is now the year of 1965 and the members of the class of '60 have not met for five years. Because of the wedding invitation I received in the mail, I have a feeling that the senior class will soon be together again.

The day I received the invitation, I was surprised to see that the mailman was none other than David Buckland and carrying the mail bag for him was his friend, Ralph Gurney. They informed me that the printing was done by Herman Miner, Chris Calo, Roger Doerfler and William Conway. I read the invitation again and learned that the wedding was to take place where Ted White was pastor.

The next morning on my way to work, I met Al Clark, the bus driver. I took my seat and began to glance around the bus. I saw Mary Donovan, Sally Snyder and Helen Turnbull advertising that "Ipana" smile. I also saw Termie De Rosa and Elaine Riley ride by on their jet-propelled scooters. Having come to my stop, I made my way to the door of the bus. I bumped into a young woman whom I immediately recognized as Pat Lavery, our former class treasurer. She had recently been appointed to the U. S. Treasury. During the day I met several of my old classmates, Cookie McElhinny, Fred Scharn, Dave Titterington, George Tribuna, and Joe Valley, all prosperous in their businesses.

The weeks flew by and the day of the wedding finally arrived. Jan Gibelli and her husband, Al Stimpson, offered to drive me to the wedding. Having gone just a short distance, we got a flat tire. This was discouraging as the wedding was to take place in Pelham, N. H., where Roberta Couture's husband owned a deluxe bakery shop. They had in their employ Myrtle Brien, Rita Aliot, Harriet Bova, Sheila Fleming and Sandy Neiss. Their job was to test all the cream puffs made by that great baker, Bob Osterberg. I was anxious to see them after such a long time.

Well, after the car had been fixed at Warren Long's gas station, we were on our way again, only to be stopped by the traffic cop, Dave Gilligan.

Just a short time after that, a beautiful red convertible passed us with Jo Parkhurst, Jan Nuttall, Sally Remick, Sandy Milton and Jimmy Ellinwood merrily on their way in that gorgeous car.

As the morning wore on, we became quite hungry and we stopped at Jackie Fritz and Bobby William's Restaurant, which had its grand opening. Upon entering, we met Marion Saunders, Helen Quigley, Kathy Mahoney and Maureen McLeod. They told us that Buzzy Porter, Will Pockett, Phil Vowles, Bob Barry and Duke Fidler had just finished K. P. Duty at a base in California. They all had the rank of Private, and their C. O. was Tom Paskiewicz. We were also informed that John McGuire, Lenny Murray, and Bill Fitzpatrick were testing bubble gum in the gigantic factory owned by Richard Evans.

As we entered the restaurant, three cheerful waitresses, Carol Groth, Suzanne Holman, and Mary Connolly, showed us to our seats. We ordered and while waiting, glanced around this heavenly place. Opposite us in a booth and obviously having a good time were Jackie Harkins, Marty Keoughan, Paul Kelly and John Hayes. We had delicious steaks cooked by Allen Cann and pastry made by Ellen Greenfield. After finishing our meal, we were on our way once again. Being in such a hurry, we soon passed a huge Cadillac owned by the mayor of the town, Stan Foster. Later he told me that Peggy McCue, Joan Folk, and Donna Gage were head stenographers at the State House.

Then fate stepped in again and once more we had car trouble. We called the towing service and you can't imagine my surprise when I saw Tommy Gallagher in the truck that towed our car away. Luckily Dave Farmer was right in front of us and he graciously offered to drive us. As we approached the city, we noticed a sign in front of a large ranch house, Andrew Schindler, M.D. Continuing down the long highway, a large sign appeared "Rest in Bob Stuart's Cabins." We never thought that he would ever own such a luxurious and profitable place. As we approached the city, we noticed a large billboard announcing the debut of Judy Petipas in a comedy play. We also read in small print that Doug Milton was the director of the show. The front line consisted of Linda Laskey, Cookie Leary, and Eleanor Linton. The music was being played by the world-famous orchestra led by George McWhinnie. We also passed Carol Guptill's fashion shop, specializing in tall girls' clothes.

We arrived at the airport to pick up Carl Jahnle, the mayor's friend, and we met one of the ablest pilots, Bob O'Flaherty, and his co-pilot, Ronnie Collins. We stopped to chat with the hostesses, Yvonne Comeau, Pat Colella, and Bernie Dubois, who told us all about their interesting job. Leaving the office, we nearly fell over a bucket of water with Paul DeBenedictis standing behind it working his way up in the airlines to be head floor washer.

Upon leaving this growing organization, we were escorted to our car by Andree Jubinville and Peggy Hosmer in charge of all the ground hostesses. We piled into our car and we were off once more. We passed Harry Caton and his streamlined pushcart selling fruits and vegetables grown by Al Hughes on Walter Fitz- gerald's midwest farm. With him was Jimmy Harmon holding a large umbrella to keep the fruit from getting overripe. We never had such an eventful day and the excitement of going to the wedding was just dawning on us. We could hardly wait to get to the wedding. Sadly enough, our car ran out of gas. This seemed to be our unlucky day. This time Ernie Alberghene and Dick Nardini offered to take our driver to the nearest gas station. The rest of us stayed behind.

I picked up a newspaper and started to glance through it. I noticed that Malcolm Marshall was giving a lecture on alcoholism. The article was written by Frank Scipione. The fashion articles were written by Brenda Sampson. I also read that the opening of Ray Reekie and Billy Duca's new supermarket was to take place today. As a gift to the customers, they were giving away baby orchids grown by Gerry Gardner.

In no time our driver returned with a supply of gas and we were off once more. Continuing down the highway, we saw Fred Murray painting the white line down the middle of the road. The two men mixing the paint for him were Dave Butler and Bob Anderson. As we turned on the radio, we heard the familiar voices of our school friends, Ann MacPherson, Bev Mastrullo, Ann Glavin, and Kathleen O'Brien singing the most popular hit tune of the day, "There are Potatoes in the Oven," written by Cathy Murphy. I recognized the voice of the announcer as that of Harry Allgaier saying that the record had sold over a million copies and the girls were going to be presented with a gold potato. As the news came on I heard Bob Worthen giving a commentary on sports. He said that Tom Rogers had just been appointed head manager of the Chicago Bears, and some of the players were Al DeMarino, Charlie Dyer and Dave Peabody.

When we approached the town, we were unfamiliar with the location so we went up to the information center where Sandy Mirasolo and Carol-Ann Clyde personally directed us to the church. Outside, the street was lined with cars, so Barry Spaulding and Kevin Sullivan were trying to help the situation. We also met Cathy Camic and Lorraine Campbell, star reporters for the local newspaper covering the wedding.

A group of distinguished men came into the church just before the wedding party arrived. They were Peter Thompson, Richard McKay, Joe Beatty and Jackie Nugent, all looking very dignified and debonnaire in their charcoal grey suits and white bucks. We entered the church and met Kenny Ryder and his lovely wife. They told us that Carl Huber and Jim Baybutt made over a million dollars on their new patented cough medicine. Just then, Sue Scott, Lorene Sullivan, Jane Farmer, and Barbara Draper arrived in their Ford convertible.

Because it was quite crowded in the church, the janitor, Frank Elderd, began to open the windows. Hearing the click of heels, I looked up and saw Pat Gibbons, Sue Seagel, Mary Lou Granfield, Carol Valyou, Judy Coffin and Freda Carpenter strutting down the aisle in luxurious furs. Before the ceremony we observed that the paintings in the church were done by Nancy King.

It was about time for the wedding to begin. Al Shaw began to play a beautiful composition written by Joan Lane and Lillian Smith. The song was sung by Mary McCarthy. At the last minute a group of girls came in: Sandy Harrold, Helen Jewkes, Marilyn Evans, Carole Gavin, Sharon Grant, Judy Lewis, Louise Wetherbee, Suzanne Millar, Mary McGann, and Donna Mastrullo. They all looked very beautiful. Behind these girls came Marty Boermeester and Silly Sylvester. I heard from friends that these boys owned a large chain of hotels throughout New England.

Just as we began to get engrossed, the wedding march began. After the ushers, Jimmy Callahan, Peter Clarke, Herbie Hanson, and Phil Scott had all the guests seated, the beautiful bridesmaids, Linda Chute, Cookie Barbere, Anne Marie Grady and Marianne Cahill, came slowly down the aisle. Everything was ready, the guests, the church adorned with beautiful flowers. Everyone was wondering where the bride was. Then, an excited man, Mr. Burke, told us that his daughter, Judy, and Johnny had eloped. What a surprise after all our trouble.

Warrior Legends

As we turn back the pages of time to September, 1956, we, the class of 1960, stand on the threshold of our high school career. Eagerly and excitedly we begin our Frosh activities by electing class officers: Anne Marie Grady, President; Peter Clarke, Vice-President; Joan Folk, Secretary; and Patricia Lavery, Treasurer.

Throughout the year sport enthusiasts of the class are kept busy with football, field hockey, basketball, bowling, softball, baseball and various other sports. Coach Lampson originated his "penny jar" in our first year of high school.

In the spring we find Carol Valyou and her committee diligently working with class advisors, Mr. Hirsh and Miss Royal, to make our first dance, "Bop Hop," a success.

May finds us participating in the election of officers for the newly formed Student Council. Later the same month the suspense of cheering tryouts and our pleasure when Sandra Milton is chosen to join the squad.

Early in June the doors close forever on our freshman year and we, the class of 1960, eagerly begin a summer of fun.

Suntanned and happy from a summer full of activity, we, the class of 1960, enthusiastically begin our sophomore year in September of 1957 by electing class officers: Margaret McCue, President; Janet Nuttall, Vice President; Joan Folk, Secretary; and Patricia Lavery, Treasurer. Anxious to "get the ball rolling," we begin planning for our record hop, "Jingle Bell Ball," held in December. Many of the members of our class take part in "The Kickoff," a successful minstrel show sponsored by the Dramatics Club.

The winter months are again filled with sports activities. Susan Scagel is elected co-captain of the jay-vee Basketball team. Members of the pep squad are seen cheering for their favorites of all the games. Mary McCarthy, Brenda Sampson, Joanne Parkhurst, and Carol Valyou win bowling honors. Sophomore boys are seen practicing daily for track meets and basketball games.

Spring again finds us anxiously awaiting the results of cheering tryouts. All were delighted when Patricia Lavery and Carol Bonefant were selected to join the squad.

In June, we the class of 1960, part once more for a summer vacation full of work and play, leaving behind us, lost forever in the pages of time, the memories of our Sophomore year.

In September of 1958, we, the class of 1960, gather together once more to begin a year full of activity. We elect the following class officers: Janet Nuttall, President; Patricia Gibbons, Vice-President; Joan Folk, Secretary; and Patricia Lavery, Treasurer. Our first official duty is selecting class rings. We decide to have a standard ring for the next three years.

Football rallies and games, dances, victory rides, and Dramatic Club activities hold our interest during the fall. In January several members of our class are initiated into the Beacon Light Chapter of the National Honor Society.

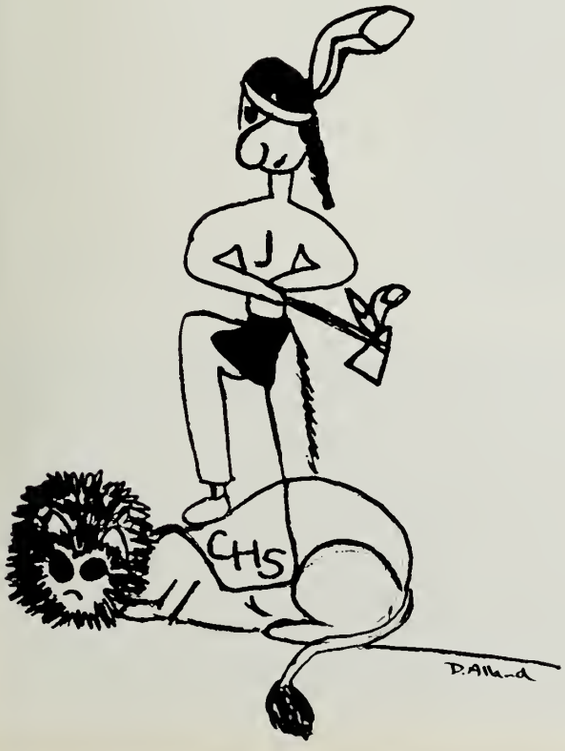
February finds the girls' varsity basketball team and the cheerleaders winning nine trophies at the Ashby Tourney. Sports again are the highlight of the winter months. Judith Burke wins the badminton singles' championship. Joanne Parkhurst, Carol Valyou, and Mary McCarthy win top bowling honors. Every afternoon the "boys and girls" basketball teams can be seen in the gym carrying on "friendly" arguments over which one will get to use the gym for practice first.

As spring approaches Kathleen Mahoney and Sandra Milton, co-chairmen of the biggest social event of the year, our Junior Prom, "Coronation Ball," and class advisors, Miss Royal and Mrs. McLaughlin, begin making plans for decorations. On May 8, sitting on a throne of pink and green, with a background of deep blue are our Junior Prom King and Queen, Arthur Fidler and Patricia Lavery, surrounded by royal princesses, Kathleen Mahoney, Judith Owskowski, Sally Remick, Brenda Sampson, Susan Scagel and Carol Valyou.

At the end of May our attention is again captivated by cheering tryouts. This year Susan Scagel, Patricia Colella, and Joan Folk are elected to join the cheering squad. As June approaches, we, the class of 1960, busily cram for finals and last minute get-togethers before we part again for the summer, leaving behind us many fond memories of our Junior Year.

September, 1959, finds us, the class of 1960, reuniting with old friends and making new ones as we put away our summer clothes and equipment and rummage around for our old school supplies, making ourselves ready for a year of study and fun.

We elect class officers: Janet Nuttall, President; Patricia Gibbons, Vice-President; Bernadette Dubois, Secretary; and Patricia Lavery, Treasurer. Anxious to make the most of our senior year, we begin by enthusiastically supporting our football team, captained by Richard Sylvester and Carl Huber. With the cheerleaders and pep squad cheering them on to victory, and Coach Lampson giving them expert advice, our football team wins top honors in the Lowell Suburban League.



The fall months are full of activities such as football dances with the awarding of trophies, rehearsals for the Dramatic Club's annual minstrel show, "Circus Carousel," and the Christmas pageant, and cheerleading tryouts which resulted in the election of Kathleen Kiley to join the squad. One of the most important events of the Christmas season is the annual Christmas dance and the election of the "Snow Queen." We elected Patricia Lavery as our "Snow Queen" and seniors Joan Folk, Margaret McCue, and Sandra Milton and Undergrads Patricia Petipas, Phoebe Mitchell and Mary Ann Gambale as her attendants.

In a very close election we elect David Farmer to represent our school on "Government Day" in Boston.

The excitement of sport activities again draw our attention as basketball and bowling season begin.

February finds us making last minute preparations for the awaited Senior Prom, "Sayonara." Finally the big night comes and we find John McHugh and Sandra Milton Senior Prom King and Queen sitting on an exotic throne, vividly decorated in oriental colors attended by lovely maidens: Sally Remick, Brenda Sampson, Sandra Neiss, Carol Valyou, Patricia Colella, and Alice Leary.

As each day passes, we, the class of 1960, realize that our high school days will soon be over and that we will soon be parting for the last time, each one of us to travel his own way. Some of us will further our education at colleges or universities while others will find our places in the business world; but no matter what we may do or where we may go we, the class of 1960, will always remember our four wonderful, memory-filled years at B. M. H. S.

FRESHMEN

After becoming well acquainted with the school, their new teachers, and the various school activities open for membership, the freshmen elected officers. Paul Pickowicz, Karen McDewell, Barbara McGuiness, and Donna Taylor, with their advisors, Mrs. Cassin, Mrs. Messer and Mr. Luciano set to work on the freshman dance. This was held in April and was a memorable occasion.

Under the leadership of their advisors, Mrs. Cooney and Miss Richardson, they successfully conducted their annual dance, held in the fall.

Editors' Page

Being advisor to a yearbook was a novel experience for me; and even with all the work involved and worrying about deadlines I rather enjoyed the whole operation. However, much credit for the success of the Warrior must go to Brenda Sampson for the untold hours she spent in layouts, writing and overall supervision; to Peter Clarke for his ideas, time and interest; to George McWhinnie and his Business Staff; to Mrs. Levesque and Miss Royal who did the proofreading; to Mr. Giunta for all the typing his classes did; to all the staff and students; and to Mr. Adams for his assistance and the free hand he lent me in putting the book together.

Mr. Davey
Advisor

The official business of the Business Staff involves Patrons, Boosters, Ads, and Sales. I would like to thank all the advertisers, parents, friends, and students for their financial assistance.

Patricia Gibbons
Advertising Manager

I shall always remember working on the Warrior. I wish to thank the Business, Sales, and Advertising Staffs and all other people who assisted me. I wish also to thank Mr. Davey for his many hours of help.

George F. McWhinnie
Business Manager

I would like to express my sincere appreciation to everyone who has been so cooperative in helping me and my staff to photograph the student body.

Judy Oskowski
Photography Editor

I want to thank Miss Hood for her cooperation in writing the sports. I have been happy to work under the capability of our co-editors, Brenda Sampson and Peter Clarke.

Joanne Parkhurst
Sports Editor

Our Photographer—Lee

In the years to come I hope that the Warrior will bring many a happy recollection and smile to everyone. To Mr. Davey, who did triple his share of the work, thank you for your patience and assistance. To Mr. Talbot and Mr. Farnham I want to say thank you for your co-operation with our sometimes unreasonable demands. Lastly, to the staff of the Warrior, I wish to thank you for all the time and effort you contributed to make our yearbook a success. For me it was an unforgettable experience.

Brenda Sampson

I would like, at this time, to thank first my fellow classmates for choosing me co-editor of the Warrior. It has been an enriching experience and a pleasure working with the entire staff. Secondly, I wish to express my thanks to Mr. Davey, our advisor, who through his untiring efforts has helped us reach our deadline. And last but not least, I thank all editors, assistant editors, and workers of the Warrior staff for their sincere efforts in behalf of our yearbook.

Peter Clarke

Working on the Warrior has been one of the most rewarding experiences in my high school days. In a way, though, I'm sorry that it's all over, because now there will be no more staff meetings, or deadlines to meet, and last of all, no more little Indians to draw. I want to say "Thanks" to everyone on the staff and to Mr. Davey for making the Warrior the great yearbook that it is.

Dottie Allard
Art Editor

Working on the Warrior has been a wonderful experience for me and one which I will never forget. I would like to express my sincere thanks to all the editors, the members of the staff, and especially to Mr. Davey, without whose help publication of the Warrior would have been impossible.

Carol Valyou
Literary Editor

After having a great year in sports, I want to thank not only the players, but the coaches, bus-drivers, photographers, and the pep squad for attending the games. I want to thank our yearbook Co-editors, Peter Clarke and Brenda Sampson, and also Mr. Davey for helping me out in my articles.

Doug Milton
Sports Editor

I would like to thank all those on the Sales Staff for their co-operation and willingness to work and all others who participated in making "our yearbook" such a big success.
